.....Tear along this line.....

Good morning & Welcome to the Awamutu Bible Chapel.

A big thank you to all the people working to bring the Jonah series alive.

(The speakers, drama, creative, planning, props, AV, sound, lights, youth, Powerhouse ... et al)

I've just finished reading through the Book of Jonah. It took about half-an-hour. It's a lively story and a good read. An interesting feature for me was the ability of unbelieving people to 'see', hear from and communicate with God.

- The sailors were terrified when they realized that Jonah was running away from the God who caused the storm. Ch1 v 10

- They "...cried out to the Lord." when Jonah told them he worshipped the "God of heaven, who made the sea and the land." Ch1 v 14

- When they threw Jonah into the sea it calmed down and they "greatly feared the Lord". Ch1 v 16

- "The Ninevites believed God. They declared a fast..." when Jonah proclaimed God's message to them. Ch 3 v 5

I was challenged to think about how well I listen to and see God at work. God is always willing and wanting to communicate with me/you. I had a discussion with a young Christian (young in the faith not so much young in years!) and her dynamic faith and trust in God was inspiring to me, an 'old' Christian in the faith and starting to get up in years! (My body has been telling me that recently!)

God is powerful!

God is compassionate.

God is good.

God is interested in every detail of my/your life.

I am thankful that God is the God of the 'second chance'.

GO WITH GOD!

God bless your week

Jeff
