.....Tear along this line.....

From Jeff's desk....
Good morning & Welcome to the Awamutu Bible Chapel.

A challenge brought to me this week:

Six humans trapped by happen stance in dark and bitter cold Each one possessed a stick of wood so the story's told.

Their dying fire in need of logs
the first one held hers back For among the faces round the fire she saw that one was black.

The next one looking across the way
saw one not of his church And couldn't bring himself to give the fire, his stick of birch.

The poor man sat in tattered clothes
he gave his coat a hitch Why should he put his log to use to warm the idle rich?

The rich man sat back and thought of wealth he had in store And how to keep what he had earned from the lazy, shiftless poor.

The black man's face bespoke revenge
as the fire passed from sight For all he saw in his stick of wood was a chance to spite the white.

The last one of this forlorn group did naught except for gain Giving only to those who gave was how she played the game.

The logs held tight in death-still hands was proof of human sin They didn't die from the cold without they died from the cold within!

PRAYER:

Lord, keep me from dying from the cold within, keep us from being a church that dies from the cold within. Help me; help us to share the life changing message of Jesus.

God bless you this week

Jeff
